

REGISTER NOW: Western Governors' Drought Forum Webinar – “One Size Doesn't Fit All: Why Variation in Hydrology and Legal Structures means that Drought Looks Different across the West”

April 8 · 11 a.m. - 12 p.m. Mountain

The Western Governors' Drought Forum Webinar Series will offer five in-depth discussions on topics that have arisen during the first six months of the Drought Forum, the Chairman's Initiative of Nevada Gov. Brian Sandoval. In addition to providing a closer examination of the emerging challenges in drought management, the webinars will enable the Drought Forum to reach a wider audience of those facing drought in the West.

Each webinar will include a 40-minute panel discussion by three expert panelists, followed by a 20-minute opportunity for questions and discussion for all attendees. Webinars will be recorded. Watch previous webinars.

Webinar Series: Drought in the West

One Size Doesn't Fit All: Why Variation in Hydrology and Policy Frameworks mean that Drought Looks Different across the West

April 8, 2015

Throughout the Drought Forum, contributors have emphasized that local solutions tailored to the unique needs of communities, hydrologic conditions, and policy frameworks are the most effect approaches to drought management. In this webinar, speakers will discuss the ways that policymakers can promote these localized drought management practices. Panelists and participants will be asked to explore how key themes from the Western Governors' Drought Forum initiative can be shared in a way most relevant to those on-the-ground. Register.

Moderator: Jason King, Nevada State Engineer

Panelists:

- Sharon Megdal, Director, Water Resources Research Center, University of Arizona
- Jack Berger, Vice President, Wyoming Association of Conservation Districts; Owner, Berger Ranches
- Frank Belock, Deputy General Manager, San Diego County Water Authority