

Israeli and Palestinian Water Management and Policy: Challenges Facing Water Managers and Potential Solutions

Community Program

Tuesday, September 1, 2009 ♦♦ 7:30 pm

Sonoran Ballroom, Westward Look Resort, Tucson, Arizona

RSVP requested: Seating is limited

Contact: wrrc@cals.arizona.edu or 520-621-9591

Opening Remarks:

Dr. Robert Shelton, President, The University of Arizona

Keynote Speakers:

Dr. Shaddad Attili, Chairman, The Palestinian Water Authority

Dr. Attili is a geology graduate with a Masters Degree from the Yarmouk University of Jordan in the use of natural minerals in water and wastewater treatment. He obtained his Ph.D. in 1999 in the field of water and environment from the Higher Engineering College of Orleans University, France.

Professor Uri Shani, Director General, The Israeli Water Authority

Dr. Shani is a soil and water sciences graduate with a Masters Degree from The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel. He obtained his Ph.D. in 1987 in the field of soil and water sciences from The Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

Planning Committee

Sharon Megdal, Water Resources Research Center
Robert Varady, Udall Center for Studies in Public Policy
Anne Betteridge, Center for Middle Eastern Studies
Ed Wright, Arizona Center for Judaic Studies
Itay Fischhendler, Hebrew University

Co-sponsors and Funding Partners

Major funding from: U.S. National Science Foundation; U.S.-Israel Binational Science Foundation; University of Arizona Foundation; University of Arizona Water Sustainability Program
Co-sponsors: International Arid Lands Consortium; International Water History Association; Israeli-Palestinian Science Organization; Resnick Water Resources Research Endowment;
UNESCO International Hydrological Programme; United Nations Association of Southern Arizona.
University of Arizona Co-sponsors: Arizona Center for Judaic Studies; Center for Middle Eastern Studies; Udall Center for Studies in Public Policy; and Water Resources Research Center.

